(Senior) Business Consultant and Project Management in Data Management

Duties and responsibilities

- Analysis and optimization of the customer business processes by implementing data management tools (Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo)
- Development and implementation of individual data management strategies and initiatives for our customers. This is based on data governance, data quality, data integration, master data and big data management and analytics to empower our customers for data monetarization
- Supporting the CDO Chief Data Officer by driving data harmonization strategy. Collaboration with the team and the customer by using Confluence and Jira at our mainly agile projects
- Taking over responsibility as SME, Stream Lead or Project Manager
- Involvement in Business development, sales- and marketing activities
- Project dependent travel willingness – approximately one to two times per month – combined with flexible work times are expected
- We also offer, as an expatriate, to work for several months abroad!

Benefits

As part of our international iDeal Technology Solutions team, you will work at our modern offices, onsite at our customers or remote at home, on innovative Solutions for our big European clients. (Sabaticals) Keeping a strong focus on personal development, we offer free education courses with certifications in data management as in specific solutions from Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo and due to our top costumers are in DACH region, everybody will receive an individual multi-year German language training. Further trainings will be aligned, according to employees' wishes and project demands.
On top to a basic salary, we are offering a variable pay. Annual bonuses based on individual targets and success fees at successful project closures.

Skills and requirements

- Bachelor or Master in Economics with a focus on IT as well as first relevant experience in consulting
- Profound consulting and presentation skills, experienced in process management, requirements engineering and knowledge of agile and waterfall project management Tools as Confluence, Jira, Azure Devops, Microsoft Projects as well as expert in Microsoft Office
- Experience with Data Management tools as Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo would be an advantage
- Excellent English skills

Please send us your CV and related documents to office@ideal-t.com.